Food Vendor Application

Attention: Food Vendors

The Moab Arts Festival invites you to market your food products at the 28th Annual Memorial Day Moab Arts Festival on Saturday, May 23, from 10 - 7 pm and Sunday, May 24 2019, from 10 - 6 pm.

The Festival takes place at the Swanny City Park, located on the corner of 400 North and 100 West. Both covered space and outdoor space is available to exhibitors. Spaces are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. Our goal is to offer you, the artist and craftsperson, an opportunity to display and sell your work in a friendly atmosphere in one of the world's most picturesque settings.

The Festival is promoted through social media, radio, television, newspapers, posters, and highway signs, attracting numerous visitors to this fun and fabulous event. The Moab Arts Festival continues as a spectacular forum for high-quality fine arts and crafts.

Beer & Wine Garden. On Saturday and Sunday, Moab Brewery, Castle Creek Winery and Spanish Valley Vineyards will be offering a wide variety of tasting opportunities to those attending the Moab Arts Festival.

To Enter

Non-refundable food vendor entry fee of $225.00 covers both days (plus 10% of gross sales)

Entries accepted until May 1, 2020 or until full
Payment required with application
(Make checks payable to Moab Arts Festival)

For information on campsites and other accommodations, please visit www.moabhappenings.com or www.discovermoab.com.

If an exhibitor occupies an outdoor booth, there is no guarantee of a shady spot. Although weather is most often at its best in May, there is always a chance of rain or wind, so we recommend that exhibitors bring some form of protection from the sun, plastic to cover up displays in case of showers. Secure all property from wind. Sorry, we are unable to refund for bad weather, or for cancellations.

A temporary sales tax license will be issued at no cost at the beginning of the show. The tax rate in Moab for food sales is 9.75%. Exhibitors are responsible for reporting sales from this show directly to the Utah State Tax Commission.

A 10% commission on all sales is part of the entry fee at the 2020 Moab Arts Festival. This fee is to be paid at the close of the show.

Pets or overnight camping are not allowed on the premises of the Swanny City Park.

28th Annual Moab Arts Festival

Eligibility

The Moab Arts Festival encourages applications for food concessions from anyone who has a freshly prepared or packaged food product. Only food & beverages may be sold at a food booth, no art or merchandise. Exhibitors not meeting this criteria will be asked to leave the Festival without refund of booth entry fee.

The food court is located outside on the South side of Swanny City Park. Outdoor tables and seating will be provided for show attendees. Each exhibitor must provide his or her mobile display, preparation booth and equipment, and must attend to the unit. Exhibitors also must have adequate internal cooking and/or cooling equipment as needed to maintain your product in a safe and healthy fashion. All equipment must meet or exceed NSF specifications. No one will be allowed to exhibit fresh food from a site constructed, non-electrical booth. Note: Application for the Temporary Food service permit from the Southeast Utah Health Dept is required.

- Each booth should display an identifying sign.
- Exhibitors are responsible for setting up their own equipment (mobile unit, awning, table & chairs, etc.) and keeping their booth space clean.
- Booth set-up time is from 7 a.m. to 10 a.m. both mornings, although booths may be set up (at the vendor's risk) on Friday night after 5 p.m. Booths may remain overnight Saturday.
- Tear down is 6:00 p.m. Sunday. NO EARLIER. NO EXCEPTIONS.
- Moab Arts Festival is not responsible for damage, theft, loss of food product or display facilities.
- Assignment of booths will be at the Moab Arts Festival discretion.
- NO PETS OR OVERNIGHT CAMPING ARE ALLOWED ON THE PREMISES OF THE SWANNY CITY PARK.

We cannot guarantee a shady spot. Although weather is most often at its best in May, there is always a chance of rain or wind, so we recommend that exhibitors bring some form of protection from the sun, plastic to cover displays in case of showers, and secure all property from wind. Many exhibitors use heavy weights such as sand bags to secure their tent. Sorry, we are unable to refund for bad weather, or for cancellations.

Booth Space

All food booths will be required to conform to all appropriate state and local regulations. All personnel working in food booths are required to have current foodhandler permits. You will be required to purchase a Utah Health Department permit prior to selling any product. Submit photographs of your equipment and/or booth with application.

For information on campsites and other accommodations, please visit www.moabhappenings.com or www.discovermoab.com.

A temporary sales tax license will be issued at no cost at the beginning of the show. The sales tax rate for prepared food in Moab is 9.75%. Exhibitors are responsible for reporting sales from this show directly to the Utah State Tax Commission.
